OUTRAGED PATIENCE OR MOB LAW? WHICH?

IT is a serious thing when a certain per cent of the population of a community take the law into their hands. It is a distinct halt in the onward march of civilization. It is also a confession that there is something lacking in the administration of the penal code. It is something to which we are distinctly opposed. We wish to make that fact thoroughly plain.

Legislators tell us that it is always well to take into consideration the "attendant circumstances" in arriving at a conclusion. Were their extenuating circumstances? is a question of vital importance.

It may be stated that communities will suffer for years, and individuals will try and forget rather than seek redress by a resort to force. We have been taught to bear and to forbear. And we are of the opinion that this is but the price we pay for progress.

There is a limit, however, to the endurance of a community and of an individual, a time beyond which patience ceases to be a virtue, a time when a community or an individual must assert itself or himself or be classed among things too miserable to mention.

It is a dangerous point beyond which to push either a community or an individual and he who does it unlocks the gate to passions terrible.

If certain individuals, gaining their livelihood in the United States, grasping with greedy hands all of the advantages this fair country offers, moving in a community, the sons of which are laying down their lives for a sacred cause, a cause for which their very forefathers died, if such an individual persists in mouthing the mutterings of a brain that has been fed upon such a diet as German "Kultur," tar and feathers and the gory cat-o'-nine-tails is too good for him.

PUBLICITY AN EVER GROWING NEED

SOMEONE has said that if you build the best mouse trap in the world that the world will beat a footpath to your doorway. It is a statement that catches the attention of the ambitious, awakening in them the urge to lead in their particular vocation.

In all probability the statement in question covered the ground in the day and age when it was written, but like many others of its kind, it will not bear close scrutiny in the present age of publicity. It lacks one of the vital factors that today make for success in almost any walk of life, and that is publicity. And it is along that line that many fail.

We have been told that worth will tell in the end and we agree but it may take too long for the general public to discover the worth of any man or the worth of any invention. To bring the attention of the public to the man or thing in question is today an absolute necessity if the best results are to be obtained. The man who advertises judiciously is the man who gets there and the man who fails to advertise is the man who is left.

THAT INCOME TAX QUESTION

HAVE you filed your statement relative to the income tax? There are but two weeks left in which to do so and Justus S. Wardell, the collector of this district, has telegraphed The Bonanza stating that he is exceedingly anxious to eliminate from this district the unintentional violator of the law. He says that the income tax returns from this district are far below the estimates and that at least 100,000 people that are amenable to the law have failed to make responses. Are you among them?

WHO REPRESENT RUSSIA?

WHO represent Russia? Let those who say that Japan should come to an understanding with Russia before taking steps to keep Germany out of Northeastern Asia answer that question. Already Germany is reported to be drafting Russians into her army and Estonian regiments have gone over to the Huns. Certainly, the Bolsheviks who have sold Russia into economic and political slavery do not represent Russians who aspire to freedom.

WHAT GERMAN PEACE MEANS

THE clause in Rumania's treaty with the Huns which provides for the passage of troops to besiege Odessa shows what a German peace means. The weak have no rights which Prussianism respects. A similar demand upon America would be the use of the Port of New York and passage up the Hudson and Mohawk valleys to strike at the heart of Canada. Why talk of peace with such a foe before he acknowledges defeat?

A DANGER SIGNAL

OH for a Gustavus Adolphus, a Lion of the North, to lead the Scandinavian peoples in defense of their rights against Teutonic militarism! Germany's seizure of Finland is the danger signal that should heat the fighting blood of the free peoples of Northern Europe who have faced the autocracies of Germany and Russia for centuries.

NEVADA LEADS HER QUOTA

WITH enrollments continuing in many states and with returns incomplete, the United States Public Service Reserve announces that 200,000 shipyard volunteers are known to have been enrolled.

Nevada's quota of 386 men has been passed with a total enrollment of 391 and enrollments are still being received. California has exceeded its quota of 11,310, and Oregon exceeded its quota of 3204 by 400 men. The District of Columbia enrolled, by a comfortable margin, its quota, which was 1390. In these and several other states which have completed their quotas, enrollments are continuing in order that all mechanics available for shipbuilding may be registered. Illinois, for instance, which two weeks ago reached its quota of 23,002, has not slackened its work and now has more than 29,000 men enrolled. New York City, which recently passed the 20,000 mark, is continuing enrollment, and last week registered shipbuilders of the highest type. The New York City office of the United States Employment Service has been placing many men in the shipyards of the vicinity, and in addition has sent a number to the Hog Island plant at Philadelphia.

No campaign since the entrance of the United States into the war has aroused among mechanics such a spirit of patriotism as has the drive of the Public Service Reserve for men to meet the future needs of the shipyards. The campaign has disclosed the fact that there is an ample supply of skilled labor for shipbuilding, and the thousands of men enrolled are impatient for openings to serve.

DAY'S WORLD WAR NEWS GENERALIZED

(By Associated Press.)

In a battle that has rivalled in ferocity any that has preceded it during three and a half years of warfare, the British, on a fifty-mile front, have withstood a great German offensive in its initial stages. At some points the British line has been bent back, but not as much as had been expected by military experts acquainted with the forces the Germans had brought up and the power of the guns they had upon and behind the line.

As the result of the struggle on that part of the front just west of Cambrai, where the fighting was apparently hottest, the British line has nowhere been broken, and Field Marshal Haig's men have inflicted frightful casualties on the enemy.

As an indication of the sanguinary nature of the fighting, the Berlin foreign office states that 16,000 men and 200 guns have been captured. This may be compared to the British losses in the German counter offensive on December 4, 1917, when 6000 men and 100 guns were captured.

The reports of infantry fighting were indicative of an attempt on the part of the Germans to drive wedges into both sides of the Cambrai salient, isolate the British troops further east and regain the Hindenburg line, which they were driven from on November 22, 1917, by General Byng's sudden blow. Subsequent dispatches have proved that this was, indeed, the plan of the German general staff. The fighting on the rest of the fifty-mile front was but a side issue to the terrific onslaught aimed at Gauthier wood and Lamcourt, the south and north bases of the salient.

There is no data upon which it is possible to estimate the success attained by the Germans to the south, but names of towns where the armies were battling on Friday show that on the northern side of the salient the Germans bent the British line back about 2 1/2 miles. It was reported that St. Leger was the scene of a hard struggle and that Dougnies had been re-taken by the British. These points are about four kilometers, or 2.48 miles back of the British lines as they stood before the attack began. Berlin claims that the British first line positions from Arras to LaFere were captured.

The concentration of men and artillery on the British front, as shown in official reports, demonstrates that the Germans are making a determined effort to smash the British front. Forty divisions, or about 400,000 Teutonic troops are in the fight. The total number of cannon the Germans are employing cannot be estimated, but unofficial reports say that there were 1000 guns on one small sector. Austrian and Bulgarian troops have made their appearance on the British front.

MAGGIE MITCHELL ACTRESS IS DEAD

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, March 23.—Maggie Mitchell, one of the most famous of American actresses, died at her home in this city yesterday at the age of 81.

The attack was launched under the eyes of Emperor William, Field Marshal Von Hindenburg and General Ludendorff, the three guiding spirits of the German war machine. The French report fighting in various sectors, especially in Champagne and Lorraine.

Hostilities are not limited to the front in France, but the Italian battle line is beginning to show signs of activity beyond the ordinary. An Austrian attack in the Frenzela valley was checked by the Italians after an advanced post had been taken. The Frenzela river is a tributary of the Brenta and a drive there would be for the purpose of gaining a foothold on a road to the plains of northern Italy.

American cannon have continued the terrific pounding of the German lines in the Lunenburg sector and raiding parties have found that the German trenches have been demolished. So complete is the evacuation of the German first lines that an American patrol crossed No Man's Land without artillery assistance and without being fired on by the enemy.

The Germans, continuing their advance in southern Russia, have captured the city of Oshakov, forty-one miles northeast of Odessa. The Germans are also continuing their invasion further north. Chaotic conditions are reported in northern Russia where the people are fleeing as best they may from the invading Teutons.

General Irons resumes his rank of colonel of infantry and has been assigned to the 49th Regiment.

UNCLE SAM SEEKS ARTISTS' TALENT

(By Associated Press.)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—"Your talent can be used to help America win the war" is the slogan being spread from coast to coast by the United States Army Recruiter, the army magazine, now conducting a poster contest. To arouse interest, three prizes of $50, $25 and $15 are being offered. All art schools are being notified of the contest.

The winning posters will be submitted to the war department with view of having them distributed nationally, thus bringing fame to the artists producing them.

The completed poster must not contain more than four base colors, must measure 21 by 31 1/4 inches and must be at the U. S. Army Recruiting Headquarters, 660 Market street, San Francisco, by April 26, 1918. This contest affords a splendid opportunity to the artist to enlist his talent to help the U. S. army enlist men.

WANTS RECRUITS FOR TANK SERVICE

(By Associated Press.)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—Men for the tank service, national army, are being trained at Camp Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, says an order received by Lieutenant-Colonel John H. Gardner, commanding the San Francisco recruiting district, asking for more recruits for this regiment, the 65th Engineers.

The tank service affords a remarkable opportunity for seeing spectacular action on the battle fields, for the tanks are in the midst of it, belching veritable streams of lead at the enemy. They go over the top and ramble through barb wire entanglements without hesitation.

Men between the ages of 18 and 21, and 31 and 41 may volunteer for this regiment.

"VOTES FOR WOMEN" PAPER GOES UNDER

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, March 23.—After ten years' continuous existence as the organ of woman's suffrage in England, the periodical "Votes for Women" ceases publication with the February issue.

"The time for an exclusively suffrage journal has gone by," it says in its valedictory. "Votes for Women" did its work for ten years; it was a pioneer among women's papers. It comes to an end at a dramatic moment."

NEW TODAY CALUMET BAKING POWDER SAVES THREE WAYS

A moderate priced Baking Powder of greatest merit. Honestly made. Honestly sold. Economical in every way. Every particle is full of actual leavening value. A full money's worth.

You save time when you use it. Calumet is all baking powder. It begins to raise bakings the instant they are put into the oven. You don't have to keep "peeping" to see if bakings are all right. You know they are. Calumet is sure—never fails. That's economy. And true economy—in cost—in use—in time.

One trial will prove it and show you in results why millions of shrewd, thrifty housewives prefer Calumet to all other brands.

The unflinching strength of Calumet guarantees perfect results. Not only saves flour—sugar—eggs, etc.—but saves Baking Powder. You use only a teaspoonful—you use two teaspoonfuls or more of most other brands.

Calumet contains only such ingredients as have been approved officially by the U. S. Food Authorities.
